

ADOPTION HEARING CHECKLIST FOR ICWA CASES

WHO SHOULD ALWAYS BE PRESENT AT THE UNCONTESTED ADOPTION HEARING:

- Judge;
- Adoptive parents;
- Assigned caseworker, if any;
- Tribal caseworker or representative;
- GAL/CASA or advocate for the child;¹
- Court reporter or suitable technology; and
- The child.

WHO SHOULD ALWAYS BE PRESENT AT THE CONTESTED ADOPTION HEARING:

- Judge;
- Prospective adoptive parents;
- Assigned caseworker;
- Agency attorney;
- GAL/CASA or advocate for the child;
- Tribal representative and/or attorney;
- Parties contesting the adoption (including Indian custodian if there is one);
- Attorneys for all parties;
- Court reporter or suitable technology; and
- Security personnel.

WHO MAY ALSO BE NEEDED AT THE CONTESTED ADOPTION HEARING:

- The child;
- Interpreter;
- Judicial case management staff; and
- Other witnesses, including tribal elders, members of the child's extended family, and other tribal members.

KEY DECISIONS THE COURT MUST MAKE:

- Whether written notice was provided to the child's tribe by registered mail, return receipt requested, even if the child's tribe has not been a party to any prior proceedings related to the welfare of the child. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(a)

THE COURT'S WRITTEN FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW SHOULD:

- Determine whether the child is within the exclusive jurisdiction of a tribe because the child either resided or was domiciled on a reservation or was already a ward of a tribal court at the time that the child custody proceedings began, thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction.
- Determine whether all the necessary consents to adoption have been provided, including the consent of the agency with the custody of the child, the consent of the child (if the child is old enough that consent is required under state law), and the consent of a parent or Indian custodian whose rights have not been terminated.
- Thoroughly describe the conditions and circumstances under which parental consent to adoption was obtained. When there has been no prior termination of parental rights, parental consent must be executed in writing in the presence of the judge and must be accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood these terms. 25 U.S.C. § 1913(a)

- Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to adoption in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood. 25 U.S.C. § 1913(a)
- Certify that the consent to adoption was not given prior to or within ten days after the birth of the child, as the consent would not be valid under these circumstances. 25 U.S.C. § 1913(a)
- Determine whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to adoption were explained. 25 U.S.C. § 1913(d)
- Determine whether the child is placed in an adoptive home where the adopting individual is a member of:
 - The child's extended family;
 - The child's tribe; or
 - Another Indian family.
- If the child is not placed in one of the placement preferences established by federal law, determine whether:
 - The agency made a diligent search to locate a placement that meets the preferences established within the ICWA. 44 Fed. Reg. at 67,595
 - There is good cause not to place the child according to the placement preferences. 25 U.S.C. § 1915(a)
 - The child's tribe established a different order of preference by resolution. 25 U.S.C. § 1915(c)
 - If the child's tribe established a different order of preference for placement, ascertain whether the placement is the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the child's special needs, if any, may be met. 25 U.S.C. § 1915(b) and (c)
 - The child's consenting parent evidenced a desire for anonymity, in which case the court shall give weight to that desire in applying the preferences. 25 U.S.C. § 1915(c)
- Determine that the child is doing well in the adoptive home and that the adoptive parents have made a clear and knowledgeable commitment to care for the child on a permanent basis.
- Determine that the adoptive parents fully understand the legal and financial consequences of adoption. Review with the parents and agency the need for and sufficiency of any adoption subsidy arrangements.
- Certify that the parent understands that he/she may withdraw consent to adoption for any reason prior to the entry of the final decree of termination or adoption, as the case may be, and that the child will be returned to the parent.
- At contested adoption hearings, determine whether the adoption should be granted. A contested adoption hearing must be conducted with procedural fairness, and should include notice to the parties and the child's tribe even if the tribe has not yet become a party in previous stages of the child custody proceedings.

- Conclude the proceeding without undue delay, applying principles of case flow management.
 - The court which enters the final decree of adoption must, upon application, inform the Indian child who has reached the age of 18 of the tribal affiliation, if any, of the individual's biological parents and provide such other information as may be necessary to protect the rights flowing from the individuals' tribal relationship.
- 25 U.S.C. § 1971

¹ The court should make every effort within its discretion to appoint an advocate for the child who is either a member of the child's tribe, or who is familiar with and respectful of the child's cultural needs.

- Whether efforts were made to ensure that the parent understood the case plan if the parent does not read English.
- Whether the active efforts were unsuccessful. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(d)

- Certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation of the terms and consequences of the consent to termination of parental rights in English, or that it was interpreted into a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood. 25 U.S.C. § 1913(a)

- Determine whether the consent was voluntary and informed, that it was not obtained through fraud or duress, and that all alternatives to termination of parental rights were explained. 25 U.S.C. § 1913(d)

If termination of parental rights was uncontested because the parent failed to appear, or appeared but neither contested nor consented to termination, adhere to the checklist for contested terminations listed above.

¹ The court should make every effort within its discretion to appoint an advocate for the child who is either a member of the child's tribe, or who is familiar with and respectful of the child's cultural needs.

KEY DECISIONS THE COURT SHOULD MAKE:

- Whether child is an Indian child under the ICWA. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4)
- Whether state court lacks jurisdiction because child is already a ward of a tribal court. 25 U.S.C. § 1911(a)
- Which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted.
- Whether there is a legal basis for continued court and agency intervention.
- Whether the agency made active efforts to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family. If so, were these efforts successful? 25 U.S.C. § 1912(d)

- Whether parent is able to read English.

ADDITIONAL DECISIONS:

If the disposition hearing will not occur within a short time after the adjudication hearing, the judge will need to make temporary decisions at the conclusion of the adjudication, such as:

- Determine where the child is to be placed prior to disposition hearing.
- Order further testing or evaluation of the child, parent(s), or Indian custodian in preparation for the disposition hearing and ensure that all assessments or evaluations are culturally appropriate.
- Make sure the agency is, in preparation for disposition, making prompt and diligent efforts to identify and evaluate extended family or, if no family member is available, other tribal members or other Indian families, as caretaker.
- Order the alleged perpetrator to stay out of the family home and have no contacts with the child.
- Direct the agency to continue its efforts to notify non-custodial parents, including unwed fathers whose paternity has been acknowledged or established. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(9)
- Set terms for visitation, support, and other intra-family communication including parent-child and sibling visits when the child is in foster care prior to disposition.

THE COURT'S WRITTEN FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW MUST:

- Specify whether the child is an Indian child under ICWA and, if not known, whether the child's tribe has been provided adequate notice, sufficient information, and an opportunity to determine the child's membership eligibility. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4)
- Specify what efforts, if any, have been made to identify the child's tribe.
- Specify whether the agency has mailed notice and necessary information to all tribes in which the child may be eligible for membership to enable each tribe to ascertain whether child is either a member or eligible for membership. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(a)

- Specify whether written notice was sent to the U.S. Secretary of the Interior if the child's tribe is not yet known. 25 U.S.C. § 1912
- Specify whether child either resides or is domiciled on a reservation, or is already a ward of a tribal court, thereby depriving the state court of jurisdiction. 25 U.S.C. § 1911(a)
- Specify whether the child was in the custody of an Indian custodian at the time of removal. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(6)
- Specify whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the Indian custodian, registered mail, return receipt. 25 U.S.C. § 1912
- Specify whether the agency mailed notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition and advice of rights to the child's Indian tribe, if known, by registered mail, return receipt. 25 U.S.C. § 1912
- Ascertain whether the child's tribe seeks to intervene in the proceedings and, if so, grant that request. 25 U.S.C. § 1911(c) If the child is eligible for membership in more than one tribe, ascertain which tribe is the child's tribe for purposes of the ICWA. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(5)
- Ascertain whether the child's Indian custodian, if there is one, seeks to intervene in the proceedings and, if so, grant that request. 25 U.S.C. § 1911(c)
- If child's tribe, parent, or Indian custodian requested an additional 20 days in which to prepare for the hearing, grant that request and reschedule the hearing. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(a)
- Specify whether a parent, Indian custodian, or the child's tribe has filed a motion or petition to transfer the case to tribal court. 25 U.S.C. § 1911(b)
- If the court declined to transfer the case, specify whether either parent vetoed the transfer, the tribal court declined to accept jurisdiction, or the reasons, if any, why there is good cause not to transfer the case to the tribal court. 25 U.S.C. § 1911(b)
- Specify whether the court advised the parent(s) or Indian custodian that they have a right to a court-appointed attorney if they are indigent. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(b)
- Provide sufficiently detailed information to justify why the court found by clear and convincing evidence, including testimony from an expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(e)
- Provide sufficiently detailed information to justify agency and court choices for treatment and services.
- Be written in easily understandable language so that all parties know how the court's findings relate to subsequent case planning.
- Indicate whether the parent can read English and, if not, what steps will be taken to ensure that the parent understands the court's written order.
- Set date and time of next hearing.

¹ The court should make every effort within its discretion to appoint an advocate for the child who is either a member of the child's tribe, or who is familiar with and respectful of the child's cultural needs.

WHEN DOES THE INDIAN CHILD WELFARE ACT APPLY?

THE INDIAN CHILD WELFARE ACT APPLIES WHEN:

- The proceedings are child custody proceedings as the ICWA defines that term 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1); and
- The child is an “Indian child” as the ICWA defines that term under 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4).

If the proceedings are not child custody proceedings, or the child does not meet the definition of Indian child, the ICWA does not apply.

THE FOLLOWING ARE “CHILD CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS” UNDER THE ICWA:

- Foster care placements – this includes any action where child is removed from its parent or Indian custodian for temporary placement in a home or institution, including guardianship and conservatorship, and where parent or custodian cannot have child returned upon demand but where parental rights have not been terminated. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1)(i)
- Termination of parental rights. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1)(ii)
- Pre-adoptive placements. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1)(iii)
- Adoptive placements. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1)(iv)

THE FOLLOWING ARE NOT “CHILD CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS” UNDER THE ICWA:

- An award of custody pursuant to a divorce where one of the parents will obtain custody of the child. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1)
- A placement based upon an act which, if committed by an adult, would be deemed a crime. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1)

CONSTRUCTION/APPLICATION

- A placement that meets the definition of foster care placement under the ICWA and results from an act that would not be deemed a crime if committed by an adult, such as a status offense, is a child custody proceeding under the ICWA.

- A child custody placement pursuant to a divorce where someone other than one of the parents will obtain custody of the child is also a child custody proceeding under the ICWA.

THE CHILD IS AN “INDIAN CHILD” UNDER THE ICWA IF:

- He or she is an unmarried person who is under the age of 18, and
- The child is a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe; or
- The child is the biological child of a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe and child is eligible for membership in any federally recognized Indian tribe. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4)

DEFINITIONS UNDER THE ICWA:

- “Extended family member:” defined by the law or custom of the Indian child’s tribe, or in the absence of such law or custom, is a person who has reached the age of 18 and who is the Indian child’s grandparent, aunt or uncle, brother or sister, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, niece or nephew, first or second cousin, or step-parent. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(2)
- “Indian:” any person who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is an Alaska Native and a member of a Regional Corporation. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(3) For purposes of the ICWA, tribes are arbiters of their own membership. (In The Interest of J.W., 498N.W.2d 417, 1993 Iowa App. Lexus 8)
- “Indian child’s tribe:” the Indian tribe in which an Indian child is a member or eligible for membership, or in the case of an Indian child who is a member of or eligible for membership in more than one tribe, the Indian tribe with which the Indian child has the more significant contacts. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(5)
- “Indian custodian:” any person who has legal custody of an Indian child under tribal law or custom or under State law; or to whom temporary physical care, custody and control has been transferred by the parent of such child. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(6)

- “Indian tribe:” any Indian tribe, band, nation, or other organized group or community of Indians recognized as eligible for the services provided to Indians by the Secretary of the Interior because of their status as Indians. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(8)
- “Qualified expert witness:” although not defined under the ICWA, a House Report prepared in conjunction with the ICWA states that the phrase “is meant to apply to expertise beyond the normal social worker qualifications.” H.R. No. 95-1386, 95th Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 6 U.S.C.C.S.A.N. 7530, 7454 (1978) In addition, the Bureau of Indian Affairs has promulgated “Guidelines for State Courts” which interpret the ICWA. The following characteristics are set forth at 44 Federal Register 67,593 (1979) as those most likely to qualify a witness as an expert under the ICWA:
 - a) A member of the Indian child’s tribe who is recognized by the tribal community as knowledgeable in tribal customs as they pertain to family organization and child rearing practices.
 - b) A lay expert witness having substantial experience in the delivery of child and family services to Indians, and extensive knowledge of prevailing social and cultural standards and child rearing practices within the Indian child’s tribe.
 - c) A professional person having substantial education and experience in the area of his or her specialty.

Thus, a “qualified expert witness” is not an expert on the ICWA, but an expert on the child’s tribe.

Indian Child Welfare Act Checklists for Juvenile and Family Court Judges

"These Indian Child Welfare Act Checklists were created to assist juvenile and family court judges in assuring that the necessary inquiries are being made to determine as early as possible in every case whether the Indian Child Welfare Act applies. These checklists will help judges ensure that the necessary parties have been notified and are present in all cases where the ICWA may be applicable.

It is in the best interests of the child that the required inquiries be made from the time of the initial removal hearing, and that the inquiries continue throughout every stage of the case. Failure to make the necessary inquiries, notify the necessary parties, and follow the standards established within the ICWA can result in the case having to start over from the beginning, to the obvious detriment of the child. The checklists are designed to help avoid this result by assisting judges on a step-by-step basis in meeting the ICWA requirements at each hearing stage.

Leadership by the court is essential to ensure ICWA compliance. These children should not be subject to their placements and permanency plans being disrupted well into the final stages of the case. Because this affects cases in every state, the checklists have been drawn from the RESOURCE GUIDELINES and formatted so that they can be used by courts throughout the country, whether in a state with no tribes within its borders and small Native American populations, or states such as Alaska, where 60 percent of the children in the state dependency system are Alaska Natives for whom the ICWA applies.

Much has been written in recent years about the impact to affected children if the requirements of the ICWA are not met, most notable the significant delay in achieving permanency for these children as well as widespread non-compliance with the requirement that a qualified expert testify at hearings including the initial removal hearing. Because there are disproportionately high numbers of Native American and Alaska Native children in juvenile dependency systems in every state in the country, no court can overlook the requirement to make the necessary ICWA inquiries. The NCJFCJ Permanency Planning for Children Department hopes that you will find these new checklists to be useful to you in assuring compliance with the ICWA on all cases that come before your respective courts."
